

Steve Oliver

Steve Oliver is the Vice President of Sales and Marketing for Taylor and Martin Auctioneers. Steve has spent most of his professional career in the automotive dealership space and the last nine-plus years working in the used transportation equipment industry with Taylor and Martin Auctioneers.

Steve joined Taylor and Martin in 2017, and since that time, he has led the sales team through a period of exponential growth. Taylor and Martin consistently sell 18,000–20,000 pieces of transportation equipment per year, making it a leader in the transportation equipment space.

Taylor and Martin Auctioneers counts many members of the Used Truck Association as both buyers and consignors and deeply values the UTA relationship that we have today.
